The low water in the cypr-ss swamps for the past two years has run the New Orleans mariset entirely bare of big timber of that description, and the iumbermen who can get out on the coming rise are certain of big prices for every stick they can put on that market. Almost everything in the way of sound logs is in big demand there now, but cypress takes the lead.

The Florida, a boat built at Pittsburg by Capitain James Rees for the Savannah and St. Johns river trace, and which passed here on her way thither about three we ks ago, had a rough ilm- of it after she got around on the Florida coast. Off Jupiter in let she was compelled to anchor and ride out a storm of forty hour, duration. She behaved beautifully, proving herself a splendid seabout.

We would respectfully suggest to the telegraph operator at Johns nville, on the Tennessee river, that a short dispatch from him once in a while-for instance, on the occasion of a steamboat disaster or a big flood—would be thankfully received by the Associated Press. An office of the signal corps was established there some time ago, but we do not remember to have seen a single report from it yet.

"Oid-time weather observers" may be very astute in their way, but it is possible they had not seen the annexed dispatch when they ventured the prediction there would be no big water unless it continued to rain: "The chief signal office of the Euriced States army telegraphed the Memphis signal office yesterday as follows: The river at Cincinnati is fifty-two feet six inches above zero and rising. At Louisville, twenty-seven feet above and rising, and at Nashville forty three feet four inches, but failing."

We would call the attention of the trade generally to our well-known brand of Lard and Lard Oil. Some unsersputious manufacturers, unable to compete fairly with us, are placing upon the market Lard packed short weight, both Trerees and Buckets. We especially call the attention of consumers to the above facts. Whit Lard is always FULL WRIGHT. We ask hat we be sustained in our efforts to keep honest goods in the market. Let fraud be stamped out.
